Unit—II

2. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow it : 10

Books are the chief carriers of education—because of them ideas live and spread. How important books are you can judge from the fact that very hot countries have little civilization. There are many reasons for this, but one of the most important is that white ants and who live in the tropics eat up all the books. For example, in tropical South America there are particularly no books more than forty or fifty years old. Where there are no books and no records and no literature. The ideas and knowledge of one generation are not handed on to the next, and it is much more difficult for the race of progress and become civilized. But it is no use having books unless people can read them, and learning to read in part of what is called education.
